

Atanas Kolarovski, dancer and choreographer of the first generation of "Tanec" died.

"Tanec" announces with great sadness that on 09.03.2022, after a long and incredibly rich and successful life, in his 96th year of life, Atanas Kolarovski, the famous dancer and choreographer of the first generation of "Tanec", passed away forever.

Atanas Kolarovski was born in the village of Dracevo, Skopje, in 1926. With the formation of the State Ensemble "Tanec" he became a member and for almost twenty years he was artistic director, choreographer and dancer-soloist.

In 1970 he moved to the United States of America, where he continued his activity as an instructor, passing on the richness of Macedonian music and dance folklore to generations of lovers around the world. Atanas Kolarovski is the author of several top choreographies for "Tanec", including the anthologies "Dracevka", "Kalajdzisko" and "Nevestinsko".

He left a deep and indelible mark on the entire Macedonian culture, and his works they brought him into the eternal Macedonian unforgettable.

May his path be bright and may the great glory of the great master of the Macedonian dance be eternal!
